

Malcholm Graham

FP&A DIRECTOR

Malcholm Graham serves as Bennett Thrasher's Financial Planning and Analysis director. He is responsible for the short term and long-term financial planning and forecasting as well as providing analysis and financial insight to executive leadership.

Prior to joining the firm, Malcholm held roles of increasing responsibility in corporate finance at The Home Depot, where he provided financial support to supply chain operation leaders and developed financial models to support cost saving initiatives and business objectives. Malcholm also has industry accounting experience working as a staff and senior accountant at a publicly traded company. In these roles he oversaw the periodic accounting activities of a region and participated in annual audits.

Malcholm is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensed in the state of Georgia.

CONTACT

770.490.8190
Malcholm.Graham@btcpa.net

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (Accounting), Berry College
Master of Business Administration (Corporate Finance), University of Georgia

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Buckhead Church